ANNUAL STALLS IN THE GARDEN TOMORROW SATURDAY 12TH MARCH.

Bring your baked goods, conserves and fresh produce first thing. And bring your household and friends. Let's make this a roaring success!

EPISCOPAL VISIT – CONFIRMATION AND RECEPTION

Jaimie Simpson. To be Confirmed (apologies to Nick who owns the t-shirt to the left!)

Michelle Walker. Being Received as a Communicant member of the Anglican Church

We welcome this morning Kate Prowd, Bishop of the Oodthenong Episcopate (our Episcopate) to lead our worship and to Confirm Jaimie Simpson and to formally receive Michelle Walker into communicant membership of the Anglican Church. Jaimie was baptised at St George's earlier in the year. Welcome Michelle, who is entering the life of the parish. And a warm welcome to her family and friends who will join us on Sunday to wish her well.

LENT WITH STANLEY SPENCER

Do we underestimate the degree to which Jesus' intimate connection with the creation formed his faith and spirituality; that is, his grasp of the good news he embodied and proclaimed. Stanley's Jesus is so much a part of the earth. It's as though he happily embraces the force of gravity helping his big body be close to the ground. It reminds me of the first time I saw the Bangarra Dance Theatre. None of this reaching for the heavens, defying gravity – they were dancing close the ground and one with it.

The artist invites us into Jesus' own way of contemplation. He gazes on the hen with her chicks – a scene most ordinary and immediate. We really should question the way we so readily jump into our car and onto a plane to go somewhere where, the marketing people tell us, we will TRULY engage the wonder and beauty of creation. Creation becomes yet another thing we consume, a commodity whose value is measured by the commercial return. In fact, a lifegiving connection with creation is available where we are, right under our noses, as it was for Jesus. The only time he travelled was as a refugee fleeing the murderous intent of a tyrant. Fr Peter

*We acknowledge that we gather and worship on the traditional land of Wadda Wurrung people and honour and pay our respects to their Elders past and present. We affirm, with them, in the Wadda Wurrung language: 'kim barne barre Wadda Wurrung' (this is the land of the Wadda Wurrung).

GOSPEL OF THE DAY Luke 13.31-35

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, 'Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.' He said to them, 'Go and tell that fox for me, "Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed away from Jerusalem." Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord." '

WHAT'S IN A WORD - JENNI'S GOOGLE WANDERINGS AND WONDERINGS

Interregnum The Collins English Dictionary shows Interregnum to mean an interval between two reigns, governments or incumbencies. We are very soon to enter an interregnum, with Fr. Peter finishing his duties as Parish Priest on 24th April. During the time of his leaving us and a new parish Priest appointed, known as the INTERREGNUM, we will once again have Fr. Tim Gibson as a locum for some of the Sunday Services and other Pastoral needs, as required. When Fr. Tim is unavailable another Locum Priest will lead us. I will endeavour to keep you informed, and the wheels of the administration of the Parish turning, along with the support of Parish Councillors. Please do not hesitate to contact me by email or on my mobile, 0418 581 725, if there is anything I can help with.

E-pray have released an App for both iPhone and Android that is freely available for download and which includes the full text, including the set readings and psalm, for Morning and Evening prayer. The Epray App is available here.
