Fifth Sunday in Lent

(by hand to those without email)

'With the flowers'. Stanley Spencer. from his Christ in the Wilderness series

As usual, Session Five of our 'Forgiveness' Lenten studies began with a time of shared silent meditation. Then we were invited to ponder the photo to the right, 'Bee on Kangaroo Paw', and share our responses. There was the most beautiful and Spirit filled convergence of reflections around how we connect with non-human creation in a life-giving way and how we need to let creation teach us, especially by connecting with first nations people. Clear resonances with this week's Stanley Spencer painting on the left.

(The lesson's author was Awabakal elder, Felicity McCallum)

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER 2022

All our Liturgies, until June, are at St James Church in Point Lonsdale due to St George's being closed for the Restoration work.

PALM SUNDAY	MAUNDY THURSDAY	GOOD FRIDAY	EASTER DAY	EASTER DAY
Sunday 10 April 10.00am	Thurs 14 April 5.00pm	Friday 15 April 10.00am	17 April 8.00am	17 April 10.00am

As a community of faith, Easter is the time when we are taken into the heart of our faith and into the very heart of God's love for us shown in the abundant, compassionate and self-giving love of Jesus.

For us, this is more than yet another long-weekend. While for some, these holy-days might be a vestige of a bygone era, for Christians it is an opportunity to gather and re-inhabit the public space – to affirm and deepen our faith and give witness to it.

Please give Holy Week and the Easter celebrations the dignity and priority they deserve.

There will be the usual Ecumenical Easter Service on Point Lonsdale Beach at 6.30am, Easter Day.

GOSPEL OF THE DAY John 12.1-8

1 Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. 2 There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. 3 Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. 4 But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, 5 'Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?' 6 (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) 7 Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. 8 You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.'

FROM THE HISTORY ROOM Raking up the rat tails

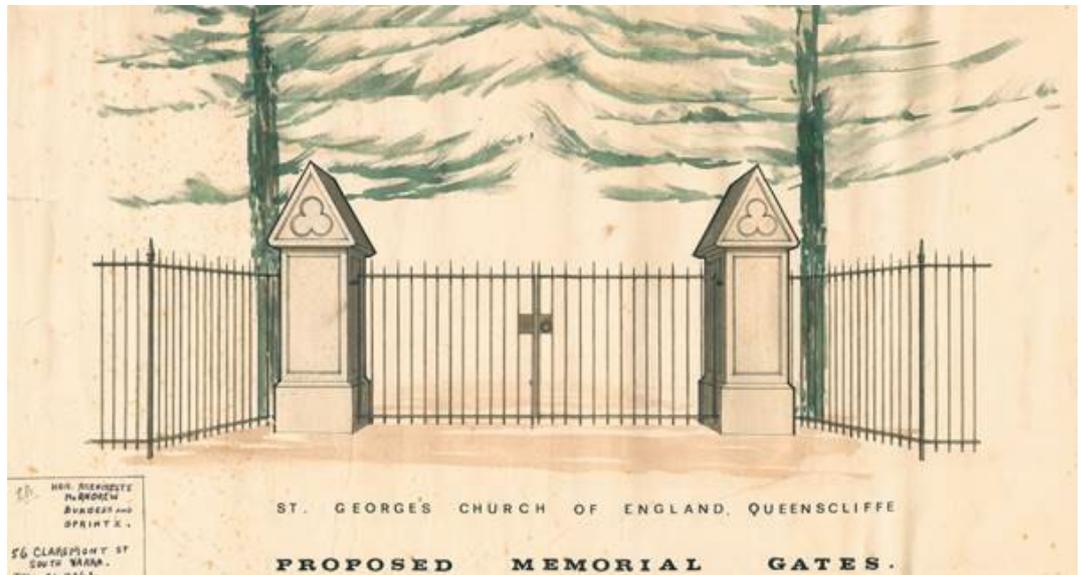

It was in the year of Australia's Federation - 121 years ago - that the two Norfolk Island pines were planted at the entrance to St George's. These wonderful, handsome landmarks atop Swan Hill (the original name for the small hill on which our church stands) have survived many a storm and tempest.

A downside our forebears never considered is the detritus - hundreds of pesky leaves - that gather on the path and lawn beneath these fine specimens. Constant raking and sweeping are needed. Many a loyal parishioner has undertaken these tasks over the decades and a faithful few still work away to keep the area tidy.

This writer just recently learned that some locals call these leaves "rat tails" due to their shape. I have had a few goes at raking them and tried to turn this action into a contemplative and reflective experience. This has proven difficult and remains a work in progress. Perhaps more rat tail raking is required to achieve such a state

The pines at the time of the installation of the current iron fence and gates. This plan is undated, but possibly from the 1960s.

This early view dates from 1878, just after the completion of the tower, but prior to the pines, wrought iron fence and memorial gates. Two members of the well-known Priddle familiar are present.

OUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

Prayer of the week

We thank you, heavenly Father, that you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
we pray that
as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his presence abiding in us he may raise us
to joys eternal;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

No word of the day from Jenni's Wonderings, but a prayer for UKRAINE

From the Most Reverend Geoff Smith

Sovereign God,

We pray for the nation of Ukraine, its leaders and people.

We pray that you would make your presence known to them at this time of strife. We pray for their protection and for an end to the Russian invasion.

We pray for the innocent, the frightened, the dispossessed, and those who have lost loved ones, homes and family.

We pray that you would bless the endeavours of those who work for peace and an end to this conflict.

Have mercy, we pray, on Ukraine.

May your peace rule in the hearts and minds of all.

Continue to stir up the leaders of the world to work together for the good of all. We pray this in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

E-pray have released an App for both iPhone and Android that is freely available for download and which includes the full text, including the set readings and psalm, for Morning and Evening prayer.
