ALL OUR LITURGIES, UNTIL AT LEAST JULY, ARE IN ST JAMES CHURCH IN POINT LONSDALE DUE TO ST GEORGE'S BEING CLOSED FOR THE RESTORATION WORK.

Dear people of St George's and St James',

Thursday this week was observed in many parts of the Christian world as “The Feast of Corpus Christi”, or “Thanksgiving for the Holy Communion”.

The fact that it is on a Thursday reminds us that Our Lord's “Last Supper” was on a Thursday night, and the choice of a day following Trinity Sunday reminds us that Christian Doctrine goes hand in hand with Christian practice – and a unique practice of Christianity is the observance of the Holy Communion (also known as the Eucharist, the Mass, the Lord's Supper or the Divine Liturgy).

People of other religions – or no religion – may do all sorts of good works, but it is only Christians who believe it is just as much part of their religious duty to gather regularly to participate in the “token” meal that is Holy Communion.

I look back on the hundreds of times and places where I have received the sacrament: in a school chapel ... in a bush setting when in the Army Reserve ... in the many parish churches where I have served ...when travelling overseas, in Anglican churches in England and Europe ... in an alpine chapel in Montana, and in New York City ... in Jerusalem, and on a rocky ledge not far from the summit of Mt Sinai ... and, when I worked with ABM, in a number of village chapels in Papua New Guinea and the Solomon Islands – the most memorable occasion being in a S.I. village where, during the Gloria, the whole congregation participated in a wonderful choreography, and the celebrant was an exuberant priest wearing brilliant white sandshoes who had the unforgettable name of Father Elvis !

In each case, the presence of Jesus was there, in the sacrament, and one felt a real “communion” not just with the Divine but with the whole Christian family. May this always be our experience when we come to Holy Communion. Tim Gibson

INTRODUCING – Kay Cottrell

2 weeks ago Kay Cottrell was honoured for her 50 years service to the Red Cross. A mighty effort Kay, we are all very proud of you.

Kay joined the Holbrook Red Cross Unit in 1969 when she lived in that area on a property with her husband and two daughters. Kay's work for Red Cross there included working with the Mobile Red Cross Blood Bank, in conjunction with the local hospital, organising donors to be available and other volunteers to assist. At the time volunteers needed to sit with clients while they gave blood and always served nice refreshments afterwards.

Kay served as the Unit Chairman for many years and was instrumental in encouraging new members to join. Kay was always helping to organise Cake Stalls and Functions and assisting with Red Cross Calling. Kay was very clever at arranging interesting Guest Speakers for their luncheons and One luncheon Kay organised with the late Tim Fisher as Guest Speaker, he was so popular people lined up to get into the luncheon.

Kay moved to Point Lonsdale in 2008 and transferred to the Point Lonsdale/ Queenscliff Red Cross Unit. (Fondly called P's and Q's Unit) and has proved to be a tireless worker even at the age of 94 years young, all the members love her happy personality and 'rollup your sleeve for the task' attitude.

Kay was to go to Government House to receive her 50 year Service Award but chose to have her Award presented by Val Lawrence instead, so the Unit held a morning tea at Val's home and everyone was delighted that Kay's two Daughters and her two Grandsons also attended. Both the grandsons said how proud they were of their Grandmother.

GOSPEL OF THE DAY Luke 8.26-39

26 Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. 27 As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me'— 29 for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) 30 Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. 31 They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. 32 Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. 33 Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. 34 When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. 35 Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. 36 Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. 37 Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. 38 The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

OUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

Prayer of the week Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, save through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ, your Son our Lord. Amen.
