Day of Pentecost
(by hand to those without email)

ALL OUR LITURGIES, UNTIL AT LEAST JULY, ARE IN ST JAMES CHURCH IN POINT LONSDALE DUE TO ST GEORGE'S BEING CLOSED FOR THE RESTORATION WORK.

Dear people of St George's and St James',

On this Pentecost Sunday, the Feast Day of the Holy Spirit, 5 short prayers based on the characteristics of Fire: attracting, warming, lighting, purifying and energising:

HOLY SPIRIT, Attract us to celebrate God's love.

HOLY SPIRIT, Warm our hearts and fill us with compassion.

HOLY SPIRIT, Light our path so that we may follow Our Lord.

HOLY SPIRIT, Purify us... burn away what is not of You.

HOLY SPIRIT, Energise us to strive for Your kingdom.
AMEN !

As we do not have a full-time Vicar during this interregnum, and we all need to take on more "jobs" and duties, I feel it is an ideal time to get the Key Register up to date. Please help me in this endeavor and let me know by email, text or message on what Parish and Church keys you have in your possession. Email: office@queenscliffionsdaleanglican.org Mb Ph 0418 581 725.

Thank you to those who have already let me know what keys they have.

FROM PARISH COUNCIL

Last Saturday the launch of the St George the Martyr Tower Restoration appeal was held in bright sunshine at St Georges Queenscliff.

Jenny Price welcomed everyone then introduced Fiona Lindsay – Warden who gave the apologies. The hymn, Eternal Father Strong to Save, was played by Brian Simpson, then Archdeacon Jill McCoy gave the opening prayer. Jenny Price gave a summary of the appeal and history of the church. Val Lawrence, our Patron, officially launched the appeal and spoke of the history and importance of this most needed restoration. For those who would like to read Val's stirring speech CLICK HERE . Following the official proceedings Lindsay Howe offered to show and speak about the plaques and their meanings. Afternoon tea followed in the Old School Hall where a sign has been erected by Kerley's Point Lonsdale, alerting the community the the appeal.

It was lovely to hear the organ being played by Brian Simpson, seeing the sun shining through the beautiful stained glass windows and all the brass sparkling. Well done to all who made this day happen, but now the hard work starts as we endeavour to raise the much needed funds. Forms for making a donation or Pledging can be found on the Web page in the links and document Tab, or CLICK HERE. If you need more information please speak to any Parish Council Member or contact the Parish office on 03 5258 4624

GOSPEL OF THE DAY John 14.8-17

⁸ Philip said to him, 'Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.' ⁹ Jesus said to him, 'Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, "Show us the Father"? ¹⁰ Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. ¹¹ Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. ¹² Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³ I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴ If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. ¹⁵ 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. ¹⁶ And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. ¹⁷ This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

WHAT'S IN A WORD - JENNI'S GOOGLE WANDERINGS AND WONDERINGS Pentecost

The term Pentecost comes from the Greek (Pentēkostē) meaning "fiftieth". It refers to the Jewish festival celebrated on the fiftieth day after "First Fruits", also known as the "Feast of Weeks" the religious offering of the first agricultural produce of the harvest. In the New Testament, the day that the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples of Jesus. Pentecost is the Greek name for Shavuot, the spring harvest festival of the Israelites, which was going on when the Holy Spirit came. The disciples were together in Jerusalem (see also Jerusalem) after Jesus' Resurrection and return to heaven, fearful because he had left them. On that morning, however, "there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." Because of the festival, crowds of visitors were in Jerusalem, speaking many languages, but the disciples of Jesus moved among them and spoke to them all, and "every man heard them speak in his own language" about "the wonderful works of God." Peter then made a powerful speech to the crowds in the city, and many were baptized as new followers of Jesus.

In Britain and Northern Ireland, and throughout the world among Catholic, Anglicans and Methodists,[3] the term Whitsun (Whitsunday or Whit Sunday) is used for the festival of Pentecost. In England it took on some characteristics of Beltane, which originated from the pagan celebration of Summer's Day, the beginning of the summer half-year, in Europe. Whitsuntide, the week following Whitsunday, was one of three vacation weeks for the medieval peasants and tenant farmers, which marked a pause in the agricultural year. Whit Monday, the day after Whitsun, remained a holiday in Britain until 1971 when, with effect from 1972, it was replaced with the Spring Bank Holiday on the last Monday in May..

In the North West of England, church and chapel parades called whit walks still take place at this time (sometimes on Whit Friday, the Friday after Whitsun). Typically, the parades include brass bands and choirs; girls attending are dressed in white. Traditionally, Whit fairs (sometimes called Whitsun ales) took place. Other customs, such as Morris dancing, were associated with Whitsun, although in most cases they have been transferred to the Spring bank holiday.

In Australia, the Whitsunday passage and associated islands was so named as it is based on Captain Cook's date for the naming of, or as Cook spelled it in his HMS Endeavour journal, Whitsunday's Passage. Based on his journal date, Cook believed that the passage was discovered on Whitsunday, the Sunday of the feast of Whitsun—Pentecost in the Christian liturgical year—which is observed 7 weeks after Easter. As the International Date Line had not yet been established, the day of discovery was actually Whit Monday.
