24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

(by hand to those without email)

For the next 5 Sundays Fr. Ron Noone will be taking the Sunday Eucharist whilst Fr. Tim is enjoying his time away in WA. Many of you met Fr. Ron last week as Fr. Tim was not well. Fr. Ron will be available for any Pastoral Care needs and can be contacted on 0417 220 618.

With the news of the death of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, we join with the entire Anglican Communion to show the deepest gratitude for her long reign, her deep Christian faith, and her love for her subjects as well as for the world. An old booklet gave an appropriate tribute to Her Majesty's faith with the title, "The Servant Queen, and the King She Serves."

Her majesty died on the feast of the nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our heavenly Queen. How sacred that this earthly queen was born to eternal life on this day. Let us pray:

Oh God, whose mercies cannot be numbered: Accept our prayers on behalf of your servant, Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, and grant her an entrance into the land of light and joy, in the fellowship of all your saints; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

And we pray for His Majesty the King, as he assumes his new office even as he mourns his mother.

This Sunday also happens to fall on the anniversary of the September 11th attacks, and we will remember the many earthly lives lost on that tragic day. And as we honour the memory of the thousands of lives who stepped into eternity that day, we are given a Gospel passage that reminds us that each and every life lost that day is precious and known to the heart of God.

Reflection on the Lost Sheep

St. Cyril, who died in 444 A.D. in his Homilies, 21, interpreted the parable as the shepherd standing for Jesus, the ninety-nine sheep as the angels and the one lost sheep as humankind. Luke is also implying that Jesus himself is the interpretation of his parables because he shows how God's acts of love are taking place now in his ministry which is a cause for rejoicing in heaven. The parables are concerned with joy which surpasses expectations. Joy both on earth and in heaven for those who were lost and now have been found.

GOSPEL OF THE DAY Luke 15.1-10

<sup>1</sup> Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. <sup>2</sup> And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, 'This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.' <sup>3</sup> So he told them this parable: <sup>4</sup> 'Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? <sup>5</sup> When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. <sup>6</sup> And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, "Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost." <sup>7</sup> Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. <sup>8</sup> 'Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? <sup>9</sup> When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, "Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost." <sup>10</sup> Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.'

The Working Bee and Sausage sizzle at St James last Saturday was a great success. The grounds and church have had a good spruce up. Special thanks to Jenny and Peter for bringing the BBQ and doing the sausage sizzle, Andrew for cleaning the Gill Hall windows so the beautiful spring sunshine can stream in, Jane for providing the delicious Almond and ginger cake, Richie for filling the green bins, (as he does most weeks), and Sara and Michael for bringing the trailer and taking all the rubbish and heavy stuff away. All in all, a great mornings work.

GRAND FINAL DAY CAKE STALL Remember that we will hold a cake stall (and preserves and puddings) outside Kerleys on Grand Final morning, Saturday 24th September, 8.30am to 11.30ish. Please start thinking about what you might be able to bake, make and take to this great fundraiser.

FROM THE HISTORY ROOM

Hip Hip Hooray!!!! EDITION 100 TODAY!

Carole and Lindsay not only concern themselves with old records, but also current ones, even those as they are created.

Accordingly, we can tell you that this is the 100th edition of Lovers of the Place! The first edition in its modern on-line form was Sunday 13th September 2020.

So, thank you so much Peter Martin, Jenni Farrar and lately Tim Gibson for putting in the hard yards to keep us informed about parish life, provide the weekly Gospel readings, prayers, events in the wider Anglican community, current events and climate change issues. Jenni's Google Wanderings and Wonderings always make for interesting reading.

TRANSFER OF PARISH RECORDS COMPLETE

To make more space in the Parish office, the History Room is now the home of parish records up to and including 2014. Many boxes of files have been carried across to Gill Hall and Carole has spent numerous hours examining and assessing them for their archival importance. Those retained will be listed and safely stored. Lindsay has been busy digitising selected items from these records for future access.

From the Parish

We are trialling this new way of keeping in touch – A weekly newsletter.

The newsletter will be available in three ways:

1. By email
2. On our web page: www.queenscliffionsdaleanglican.org
3. Hand delivered to those who cannot access it electronically through 1. and 2.

Today is a sampling of what is to come.

Games Day returns to St James, Point Lonsdale, Monday 3rd October.

For many years, parishioners of St James Anglican Church have hosted an annual cards and games day and we are excited to recommence this happy social event on Monday, 3rd October. The day contributes important funds to maintain and repair the buildings at St James. One urgent project is to weatherproof the rear wall of Gill Hall where water seeps in through the ventilator and window frames.

Everyone is welcome - from serious bridge players to those who are a dab hand at Mahjong or Scrabble. BYO game. If you can invite three friends to make up a table of four, that is excellent and multiple tables are welcome. We have plenty of card tables, but we ask you to bring a table cloth, pencils, playing cards or other games and to provide a scorer.

Your ticket for $30 includes morning tea and a basket lunch, plus a glass of wine if you wish. Raffle tickets on all tables - 3 tickets for $5.00.

Please call Jane (0457 780 060) or Kate (0428 664 212) to book your table. Please also let us know if there are any dietary requirements for any player.

Remember: St James Cards and Games Day, 3rd October, 10.30am - Coffee or tea: 11.00am games start Gill Hall, St James Anglican Church, 1 Albert Street, Point Lonsdale We look forward to seeing you.
