Sunday 2nd October

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

(by hand to those without email)

Archbishop Desmond Tutu was chairman of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission set up by Nelson Mandela's government to help South Africans come to terms with the violations of the Apartheid years. He emerged from that traumatic experience to write a book of forgiveness. In it he points out the steps to forgiveness. First, one has to acknowledge the offence. He defines forgiveness as "the capacity to make a new start. Forgiveness is the grace by which we enable the other person to get up, and get up with dignity, to begin anew. In the act of forgiveness we are declaring our faith in the future of a relationship and the capacity of the wrongdoer to change." It is not about the number of times we must forgive, but rather a way of life and the capacity to love even when it seems impossible for us. Fr. Ron.

GOSPEL OF THE DAY Luke 17.5-10

<sup>5</sup> The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith!' <sup>6</sup> The Lord replied, 'If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you. <sup>7</sup> 'Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from ploughing or tending sheep in the field, "Come here at once and take your place at the table"? <sup>8</sup> Would you not rather say to him, "Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink"? <sup>9</sup> Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? <sup>10</sup> So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, "We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!"'

**We acknowledge that we gather and worship on the traditional land of Wadda Wurrung people and honour and pay our respects to their Elders past and present. We affirm, with them, in the Wadda Wurrung language: 'kim barne barre Wadda Wurrung' (this is the land of the Wadda Wurrung).*

PARISH SNAPSHOT

Cake and bookstall a huge success!

I'm sure half of the Bellarine Peninsula ate our sausage rolls and cakes as they watched the Grand Final last Saturday. Those who don't like football no doubt read one of our books, as we took just on $2,400 for the cake stall, book store and raffle. It was a wonderful achievement, to which everyone contributed - donors, volunteers, bakers, book sorters and many more. 9yo Miranda was a very excited winner of the raffle. Thanks to Kerley's for once again allowing us to use the space in front of their shopfront.

However, there is no time to relax as on Monday, the Games Day at Gill Hall is fully booked, with 12 tables organised. Jane Caldwell and Kate Houghton seem to have it all under control, including an excellent raffle, and a small group will do our best to make delicious sandwiches for lunch.

Thank you to everyone who is working so hard at the moment to make the Parish a lively community. One last thing: the Diocese sent us three tickets to attend Choral Evensong with the Archbishop of Canterbury on Sunday, 9 October, 6.30pm, at St Paul's Cathedral. Please call me if you would like a ticket - "first in, best dressed". It will be beautiful. Fiona (Warden)

FROM THE HISTORY ROOM

Another interesting find in the parish history records

A couple of weeks ago, Diana from the Queenscliff Historical Museum contacted the us seeking information about the St George's Bell. We found some data in the records and was able to provide the following information to QHM.

Throughout 2011 a team from the Geelong branch of Australian Decorative and Fine Arts Society' ADFAS conducted a 'Church Recording' project. The information below on the Church's bell is taken from that study. Description: "The bell is bronze and hangs from a single argente, has a strap top clapper, and is swung with a wheel from a cast iron yoke on timber beams. There are three rows of parallel moulding lines circling the shoulder with an inscription ... which reads JOHN C. WILSON FOUNDER . GLASGOW 1860 H 48 cm x 55 cm diam". According to the report "information from Michael Foulds in Scotland [Whiting Society of Ringers], finds that only bell of this size was recorded as made in 1860.

If this is the St George's bell it would have been shipped by William Thomson of Glasgow to James McEwan, Melbourne. This is not certain as the bell has no visible serial number."

The brick cement faced castellated tower which houses the bell was added to St George's church in 1877-78.

I'm writing to ask you if you'd like to be part of an inspiring new multi faith campaign, organised by the Australian Religious Response to Climate Change \(ARRCC\) to address the climate crisis. It will involve people of all faiths both in Australia and around the Pacific.

For those in the Oodthenong Episcopate there is an all-night vigil followed by a service at Christ Church Geelong. There is a parallel event at St Paul's Cathedral.

Following the Lambeth Conference earlier in the year, the bishops of the Anglican Communion released a statement on the Lambeth website which begins with these words:

"Faith groups could play a decisive role in tackling some of the biggest challenges facing the world today – from the climate emergency to acute poverty, a global gathering of Anglican bishops has agreed.

The way in which Christians work alongside people of other faiths to serve the common good can testify to the "gracious work of God beyond the church", the latest "Call" agreed by bishops at the Lambeth Conference says.

It also includes an invitation to leaders of other faith communities, to join with the bishops to explore how they could work together more effectively on tackling climate change and other environmental challenges, alleviating poverty and caring for vulnerable people." Lambeth Statement 2022
