Reflection Ten lepers

Healing and salvation are the same word in Greek. Just as the creation can become an idol when we do not see God in it, so bodily healing can lead away from salvation when we only 'want something' (health, political liberation, social security) and not God. Naaman, after he was healed, carted dirt back with him so he would not forget what God had done for him (2 Kings 5:17-19). He needed a piece of sacred ground to stand on. The same meaning attaches to shrines, wayside crosses and our candle stands. People wish to say thank you. What matters is that bodily healing leads to new life with God as expressed by the leper who gave thanks. Jesus gave the community the Eucharist as a remembrance of what God has done for us. May our life with God be renewed as we all give thanks today for the gifts given to us. Fr. Ron Noone

PARISH SNAPSHOT Last Monday saw the return of the St James Card Day in Gill Hall. The day was booked out with 48 players intent on "winning that hand". The day began with Morning Tea and much chatting before settling down to the tables. A beautiful basket lunch with a glass of wine was prepared and served to the tables by members of the Parish. Well done to Jane and Kate for organising the tables and the raffle, to Fiona, Joan, Bodil, and Wendy for a great lunch, and to Lindsay for doing the packing up. Between Player entry, a terrific raffle and sale of Kate's Christmas puddings, a total of $1915 was raised for the Parish.

*We acknowledge that we gather and worship on the traditional land of Wadda Wurrung people and honour and pay our respects to their Elders past and present. We affirm, with them, in the Wadda Wurrung language: 'kim barne barre Wadda Wurrung' (this is the land of the Wadda Wurrung).

GOSPEL OF THE DAY Luke 17.11-19

<sup>11</sup> On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup> As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, <sup>13</sup> they called out, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' <sup>14</sup> When he saw them, he said to them, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' And as they went, they were made clean. <sup>15</sup> Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. <sup>16</sup> He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. <sup>17</sup> Then Jesus asked, 'Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they?' <sup>18</sup> Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?' <sup>19</sup> Then he said to him, 'Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.'

OUR PRAYERS THIS WEEK

Prayer of the week Almighty God, in your wisdom you have so ordered our earthly life

that we must walk by faith and not by sight:
give us such trust in your fatherly care
that in the face of all perplexities
we may give proof of our faith
by the courage of our lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

NEWS FROM TRINITY COLLEGE THEOLOGICAL

The Theological School is grateful for any support members of our community can provide. As such, we appreciate your help in sharing information about our upcoming Open House event on Tuesday 11 October.

The day starts with morning prayer in the Chapel at 9am. There will be an opportunity during the morning to join two different classes, to meet with the Dean, Bob Derrenbacher, and all lecturers, and talk with current students.

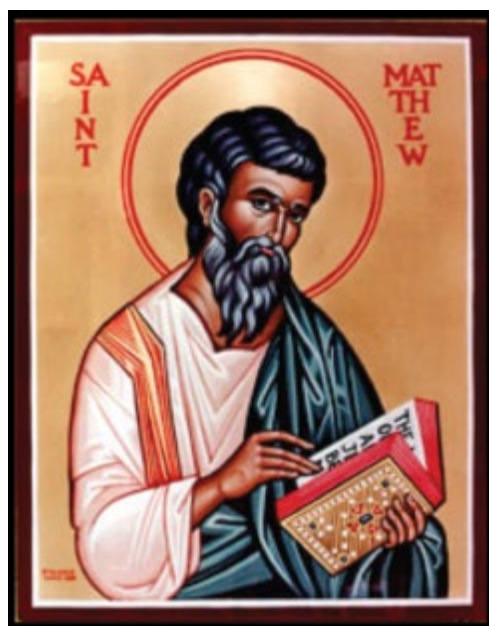

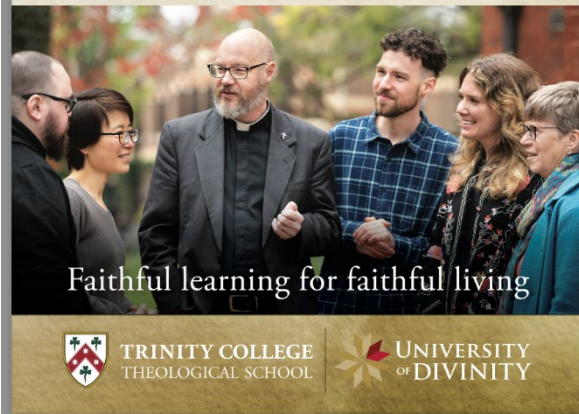

The Open House is an opportunity to consider and discuss different pathways through theological education with our world-renowned faculty and to experience our beautiful Trinity College campus. Refreshments will be provided.

Come and spend the morning with us and spread the word among any of your friends or parishioners who might be interested in theological study at Trinity College! All welcome. An RSVP is essential.

Jam for Refugees

A ten-hour concert, to benefit refugees in our area.

Saturday 29th October, 11.00 am to 9.00 pm

St. Paul's Church, Latrobe Terrace, Geelong.

“Jam for Refugees” has as its aim to raise both money and awareness to aid the plight of refugees, especially considering Australia’s record in the treatment of refugees, and the policies espoused by both major parties, although with the election of the Albanese government, the future for refugees looks a bit brighter. However recent events, especially Russia’s invasion of Ukraine, have only added to the refugee problem and the enormous suffering being experienced by so many people. As the number of refugees worldwide increases daily, the situation becomes almost overwhelming. We in Geelong cannot hope to solve the world refugee problem, but we can make our own contribution to the refugees in our area. All funds raised at our “Jam” will be donated to CRAG (the Combined Refugee Action group of Geelong) for their legal fund. Neither “Jam for Refugees” nor CRAG has any overheads, so every cent donated will go directly to assist refugees. Our committee has been trying to run a Jam in Geelong for two years, but have had to cancel due to Covid, although last year we ran a “Radio Jam” which raised slightly over four thousand dollars. This year, however, we are confident that the Jam will go ahead as a live event. The “Jam” in Geelong will occur on Saturday 29th October from 11.00 am to 9.00 pm at St. Paul’s Church in La Trobe Terrace. It will consist of a series of 30-minute time slots featuring local musicians, groups, choirs and school groups. About every 2 hours we will have a short talk (5-10 minutes) by a prominent person, or someone working with refugees, or a refugee. This will include a recorded talk by the eminent author Hugh Mackay, our patron. The Jam will be opened by well known Geelong figure Keith Fagg and will be closed by another well known figure Libby Coker. Another speaker will be a refugee who will relate some of his experiences. Entrance is by donation, and people are encouraged to “come when you can, leave when you must.” For at least part of the time there will be a barbecue in the church grounds, so people are encouraged to buy a sausage after they have heard some music. Once again all proceeds from the barbecue will be donated to CRAG. If you cannot get to the Jam in person, you can still make a donation on line by going to the CRAG website and following the prompts. Please come along to the “Jam” and help those most vulnerable members of our community. And please pass this message on to your friends and contacts. Bad things happen when good people do nothing.
