2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

(by hand to those without email)

The Apostle Andrew features in today's gospel reading. He is an interesting character in that the bible references have him "bringing other people to Jesus" on a number of occasions.

After he recognises Jesus as the Messiah, soon after Jesus' baptism, Andrew brings his brother Simon Peter to meet the Lord. And in the story of the "loaves and fishes" it is Andrew who brings to Jesus the boy with the food which then gets miraculously multiplied. Closer to the final days of the Lord's earthly life it is Andrew who encourages his fellow Apostle, Philip, to connect Jesus to some Greek people who are clearly on a spiritual search. Interestingly, Andrew and Philip are Greek names. Perhaps they had already started to spread Jesus' message to people who were not Jewish.

Traditions have Andrew going on to take the gospel to lands possibly in the vicinity of Russia, and being crucified on a diagonal cross, like an "X", but as to why he is considered to be the patron saint of Scotland is something of a mystery. One theory is that in the days when Christian communities wanted to be specially connected to Rome and the Pope, the canny Scots, looking for a patron saint, chose Andrew, as he was the brother of Peter, traditionally thought of as the first Pope.

"Bringing others to Christ" is the missionary task, and of all the nations Scotland has produced missionaries well above the average. St Andrew's Day (30th November) is a special time for prayer for missionaries.

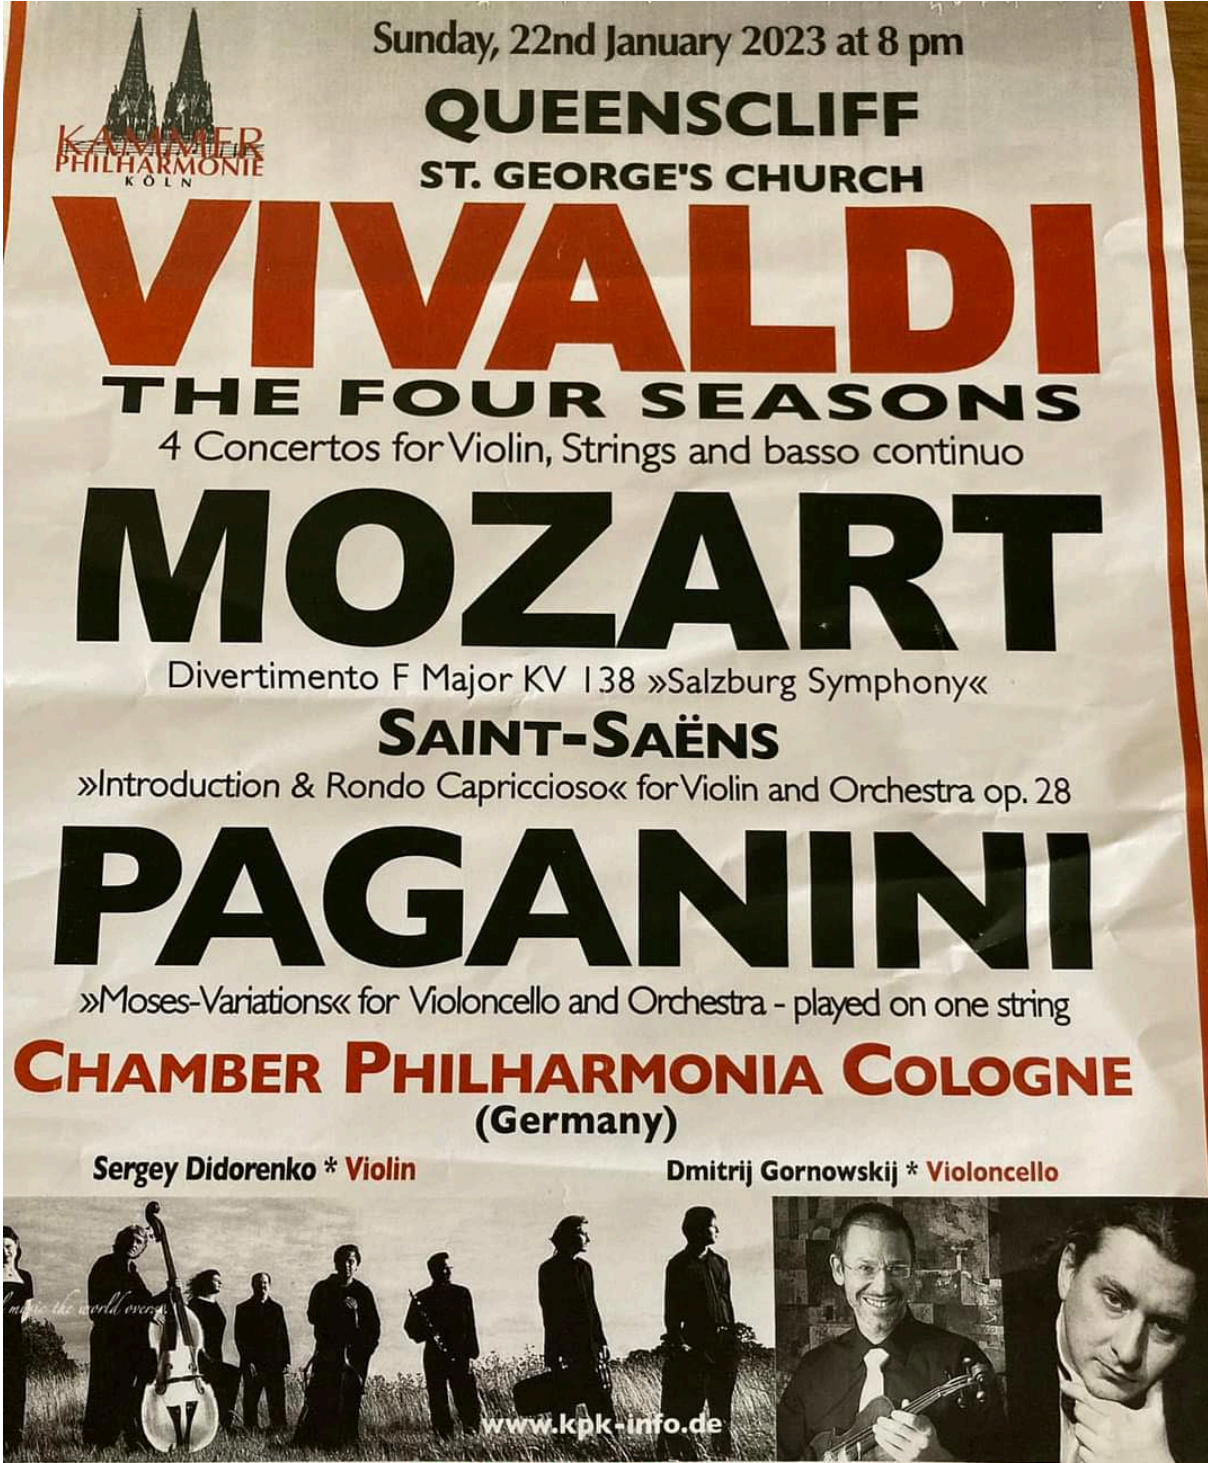

Tim Gibson.

PARISH COUNCIL Why there is no Queenscliff Market in January

It is really unfortunate that Craft Markets Australia decided that it is not viable for them to organise a second Queenscliff Market in January. What excited us about their model for markets is that all we had to do was to provide the venue and they were responsible for stalls, marketing, insurance etc. It was also an opportunity for the parish to raise some money from donations and morning tea.

However, Alison and Julie were disappointed in the number of stalls and the relatively low attendance in the week before Christmas, so the market ran at a loss to the organisers. They kindly offered us the opportunity to manage a second market in January, but we don't really have the volunteers, at present, to take on all the tasks.

We will explore another, local, offer to host a regular market in the Old School grounds and discuss this with parishioners when we know more.

So, Plan B is to hold another substantial cake stall in Point Lonsdale on Saturday, 27 January, as we did so successfully last year. (SEE BELOW) This is an opportunity for everyone to contribute all sorts of sweet and savoury delights. Kate Houghton is generously opening the book stall in the vicarage garage on Saturday, 21st and it will also be open on the 28th.

Let's hope for better luck with a market later this year.

PARISH SNAPSHOT CAKE STALL AND BOOK FAIR –Saturday 28th January

January Cake stall, 8.30am to 11.30ish outside Kerleys Real Estate, Point Lonsdale. Please start thinking about what you might be able to bake, make and take to this great fundraiser.

Gill Hall will be open on Thursday 26th and Friday 27th January between 11am and 3pm for dropping off of goods for the cake stall, or bring them to Kerley's on Saturday morning. If these times do not suit, please phone Sally on 0427 651 038 to make a different time.

The Second Hand Book Shop at St James Garage will also be open for your 2023 reading needs.

Volunteers will be needed on the day to make this a great fundraiser. Please contact Fiona Lindsay on 0428 322 208 to offer your help or for any enquiries

GOSPEL OF THE DAY John 1.29-42

²⁹ The next day he saw Jesus coming towards him and declared, 'Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!' ³⁰ This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me." ³¹ I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.' ³² And John testified, 'I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him.' ³³ I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit." ³⁴ And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.' ³⁵ The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, ³⁶ and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, 'Look, here is the Lamb of God!' ³⁷ The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸ When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, 'What are you looking for?' They said to him, 'Rabbi' (which translated means Teacher), 'where are you staying?' ³⁹ He said to them, 'Come and see.' They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. ⁴⁰ One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹ He first found his brother Simon and said to him, 'We have found the Messiah' (which is translated Anointed). ⁴² He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas' (which is translated Peter).
